

CHOOSE 3: TELLING THE TIME

- Choose two or three partners to work with (max groups of 4).
  - Write a time on a piece of paper.
  - With your partners choose 3 activities from the list below. Prepare the activities together.
  - Perform, show, ... the results to the rest of the class.
- 1) Show your times, only use your body.
  - 2) Put a rap/chant together that consists mostly of times.
  - 3) Design 3 new watches (be as original as possible) and mark your time.
  - 4) Write and perform a short dialogue about arriving too late or too early for a job interview, or for school/classes.
  - 5) What kind of material can you use to construct a watch or a clock?
  - 6) When do you take time for yourself? How often? Each day? Each week? And how much time do you take?
  - 7) In London now it's ... . What time is it now in New York, Sidney, Tokyo and Buenos Aires?
  - 8) Arrange a date with at least three other participants when you can meet for coffee or a drink.

Times: examples

three o'clock

a quarter past one

nine o'clock

half past two

ten past four

half past ten

ten past eleven

twenty past three

two minutes past six.

twenty-five to three

a quarter to three

twenty to twelve

ten to five

five to five

half past eight

a quarter to eight

eleven o'clock

twenty-six minutes to four