Listening - STAY COOL Shakespeare's biography

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE (1564-1616)

FALSE

TRUE

Listen to the story of Shakespeare's life. Are these phrases true ($\sqrt{}$) or false (x)?.

William Shakespeare was born in London.
He was born on 23rd April.
His father was a doctor.
He studied poetry.
Shakespeare got married when he was twenty-five.
He had three children.
He joined a musical company.
He became a very famous actor.
The King closed the theatres.
Shakespeare wrote poems.
Shakespeare worked as an actor with "The King's Men".
They built a theatre called "The Ball".
Shakespeare wrote tragedies and comedies.
He created the comedy "Two men and a leg".
He died in 1610 in Stratford-upon-Avon.
Shakespeare's most famous phrase is "To sleep or not to sleep, that's the question".
	He was born on 23rd April. His father was a doctor. He studied poetry. Shakespeare got married when he was twenty-five. He had three children. He joined a musical company. He became a very famous actor. The King closed the theatres. Shakespeare wrote poems. Shakespeare worked as an actor with "The King's Men". They built a theatre called "The Ball". Shakespeare wrote tragedies and comedies. He created the comedy "Two men and a leg". He died in 1610 in Stratford-upon-Avon. Shakespeare's most famous phrase is "To sleep or not to sleep, that's	He was born on 23rd April. His father was a doctor. He studied poetry. Shakespeare got married when he was twenty-five. He had three children. He joined a musical company. He became a very famous actor. The King closed the theatres. Shakespeare wrote poems. Shakespeare worked as an actor with "The King's Men". They built a theatre called "The Ball". Shakespeare wrote tragedies and comedies. He created the comedy "Two men and a leg". He died in 1610 in Stratford-upon-Avon. Shakespeare's most famous phrase is "To sleep or not to sleep, that's